

N. Bashir

Audit, Accounting & Tax Professional

nadeem@hassanalicpa.com

Specialties

Our firm experience includes Corporation, Partnership and Individual Tax Planning and Preparation, Attestation Services of Non-Public Small to mid-size Entities, Fraud and Forensic Auditing and Accounting, Litigation Support, Technical Accounting and Tax Research. We thrive on rapid-change situations such as start-ups and established companies in crisis.

Experience

Director at M. Hassanali, CPA LLC- Boutique CPA Firm with 7 Professional Staff Members; April 2001 to Present:-

Clients Served: Small to Mid-Sized Entities for Personalized CPA Services:

- Attestation Services of Retail & Wholesale Distributors, Manufacturing Concerns, Franchise owned businesses and Non-Profit Organizations
- Business Start-up Advice, Internal Control Evaluation, Accounting System set-ups, Business projections & Budget preparation
- Individual, Partnership and Corporation Tax Planning and Tax Returns
- IRS and State audit representation on behalf of clients
- Assist clients in preparing and implementing control reporting systems & reports for bank Field Exams
- Closely work with the banks on behalf of clients to fulfill periodic reporting requirements

Coca-Cola Company (FINANCE MANAGER) (November 1999-March 3, 2001)

Finance Manager: - Coca-Cola is a leading global beverage & beverage manufacturer, with turnover in excess of $ 14 billion.

- Supervised and monitored the daily cash flows, budget analysis, established internal control procedures to reduce the risk of fraud, inventory & procurement management, day to day accounting and periodic financial reporting,
- Developed and implemented financial reporting package to build strong financial and commercial awareness, resulted in successful accomplishment of the objectives. Facilitated communication and financial report distribution to management.
- Liaison with other departments, regional and corporate offices.
- Improved monitoring and accurate reporting of in/outflows and more accountability to achieve of sales targets plus spending by functional management.
- Developed and implemented department mentoring program to improve personal development efforts. Supported the department's people development goals by successfully placing individuals to valuable positions within the company.
- Part of the management team which was involved in acquisition and set up of new beverage plants

Celanese Chemicals Limited - Hoechst Group (ACCOUNTS MANAGER) (June 1996 – October 1999)

Worked with Celanese Chemicals Limited which was owned and operated by Hoechst Pharmaceutical Group, Germany. A public limited company engaged in manufacturing of chemicals. Supervised and Managed the accounts department. Established internal controls, cash flow monitoring & management, increase cash flow through better management and collection of accounts receivable, managed financial and valuable information from various departments. Reviewed MIS Functions, identified control weaknesses and efficiency improvements opportunities, developed appropriate recommendations with consideration of cost/benefit of implementation. Effectively managed relationship with diverse groups. Also supervised the development and implementation of Microsoft application based management reporting software.

EDUCATION / CERTIFICATIONS / AFFILIATIONS

1995 ♦ Chartered Accountant

2000 ♦ Institute of Computer & Business Studies ♦ Master of Business Administration (Finance), Accounting, Auditing, Management Accounting

2004 ♦ Associate Member New York State Society of CPAS